

NINETEEN SIXTY

CARDINAL

Collette,
 Good luck to a future senior. Don't forget all we learned in English class, by force.
 Take it easy on the trip.

DEDICATION

In sincere appreciation for his service to the students of H.H.S. "above and beyond the call of duty," we would like to dedicate our 1960 Cardinal to our principal, Mr. Houdek. With his inexhaustible efforts, he has helped us all through thick and thin, and he is always ready to offer his assistance whenever it is wished. His cheerful smile and jolly chuckle have lightened our burdens from day to day. Without his expert guidance and supreme understanding of our everyday problems, many of us would be forced to leave the "hallowed halls" in a state of bewilderment. His superior leadership has been a determining factor in the success of our school year.

To you, Mr. Houdek, we wish success and all possible happiness in your forthcoming years, and we hope many of them may be spent in Harmony!

In behalf of the 1960 Cardinal Staff, we would like to extend our gratitude to the following people for their help in the planning, editing, and publishing of our yearbook: Mrs. Thiesfeld, our advisor, for her time, work, and encouragement; Ellickson Studio and Oscar; Columbia Studios; Mr. Napp for added photography; Mrs. Ingersoll for her help in editing the copy; the W. A. Fisher Co. and Mr. Byron Johnson for all their help; and to our sponsors without whose support the 1960 Cardinal would have been financially impossible.

Thanks!

Dear Collette,

Here we are - almost Seniors - it's hardly seems possible. I guess I better plan on doing a little studying next year or I'll never make it on my own. We are going to have to get together this summer. Remember last summer?
What a ball!!! I'll never forget how many of my problems you have solved. You have really been a true friend. 'A friend in need is a friend indeed' That's just the way it's always been and I hope it will continue
I know when I first came to Harmony I would never have liked it as well if it wouldn't have been for you! I would really have been lost! I really got to know a lot of kids and have a lot of fun palling around with you.
I guess I could go on forever naming all the things we have done: parties,
pizza feasts, keeping the telephone lines
busy for hours etc etc.
I know I will really

miss all these things when I graduate. Won't you?
I miss them already - we will have to get back into the old ~~fun~~ swing of things this summer.
Well - good luck
always - in ADMINISTRATION what ever you do - where ever you are. I hope we can remain friends forever!!! Love all

For the Junior boys participating on the football team, the year started out great with the football team winning another co-championship.

Many of the boys also took part in basketball, wrestling, track and baseball. Class members also were in band, chorus, and special small groups of each. Four juniors were senior cheerleaders.

"My Three Angels," our junior class play, was presented November 6th and 7th. The cast and all the people who helped will never forget it.

One of the big moments of the year came when it was announced that our class rings had arrived. We think they're the best ever.

On May 7th we stood back and admired our work, for the gym had been turned into an exquisitely decorated "dance-land" for the prom. Both the dance and the banquet were a huge success.

Graduation ended the year. We were sorry to see the class of '60 leave, but glad to take up the reins when they laid them down to begin our school leadership as the seniors of '61.

The class of '62 has had another busy year at Harmony High. Our main project this year was Homecoming. Almost everyone had fun preparing for it. Some of the boys helped Harmony tie Spring Valley in a game that won't be easily forgotten.

Many of us are in band, chorus, or on the paper and annual staffs. Several of us help in the library and offices. Most of the boys are out for sports. We are looking forward to becoming juniors next year.

We "Freshies" have really hopped as we found our year jam-packed with so many activities. Band claimed 15 of our 52 members. Several boys were on the B squad of both football and basketball. Chuck Berning represented us on the A. squads. Wrestling, baseball and track were also sports in which we participated. We sponsored our first all-school party as we bade the Seniors farewell. Declam was another highlight of our year. Mary Miller and Mary Lackey were our Junior cheerleaders. F.H.A. and F.F.A. were clubs to which many belonged. Our schedules were filled to capacity with events of all sorts. We now realize that next year brings another big step when we enter our Sophomore year, striving to make it as successful as this one.

The 65 eighth graders were a very busy group this year. Many were in beginners, junior, and senior band. Mary Hanson served as our Student Council representative. Sharon Scrabeck was a reporter for the Cardeon. Quite a few of us helped prepare our Homecoming float for which we received second prize. Many of our girls were members of Junior F.H.A. Our grade was well represented on the C basketball team. Mike Ryan and Edward Hill were wrestlers. By next year we will be so experienced no one can call us "green freshmen."

Entering the high school building this year were 76 ambitious, energetic, and fun-loving seventh graders. In a short time, we became acquainted, and many of us have participated in such school activities as band, F.H.A., wrestling and basketball. We were represented by Virginia Bigalk on the Student Council, and Shirley East as a Junior Cheerleader. We won third prize on our "Rocket to Victory" float for Homecoming. Next fall we will be all set to carry on as efficient eighth graders.

After the shrill whistle of the high-stepping majorette, and a "1-2-3-Hup!" the Harmony High School Band made its first performance, pregame homecoming. During the half of the game the band, under the direction of Robert A. Knudtson, entertained the cold spectators with a snappy show of "History of the 50." Later, being very honored, the band accepted an invitation to perform at a St. Olaf football game.

BAND

Every home game (and even a few out-of-town games) was presented with pep from the band. At Christmas time, a Brass Choir was formed to bring good cheer far and near. Later, with a spark of humor, a German Band was organized.

The band participated in the annual music contest, and then finished their busy year with the Spring Concert.

We owe Mr. Knudtson a word of thanks for all the work he has put into our band, and we are sure that the band is destined for greater recognition in the future years.

With another year of fun and hard work, the Chorus, under the direction of Robert A. Knudtson, has had a year packed with activities. The Chorus worked hard for the annual Christmas Program which turned out to be one of the best yet. We sang at various churches during their Lenten services.

MY THREE ANGELS

The junior class play, a three act comedy entitled "My Three Angels," was presented November 6 and 7 under the direction of Mr. James Gohde.

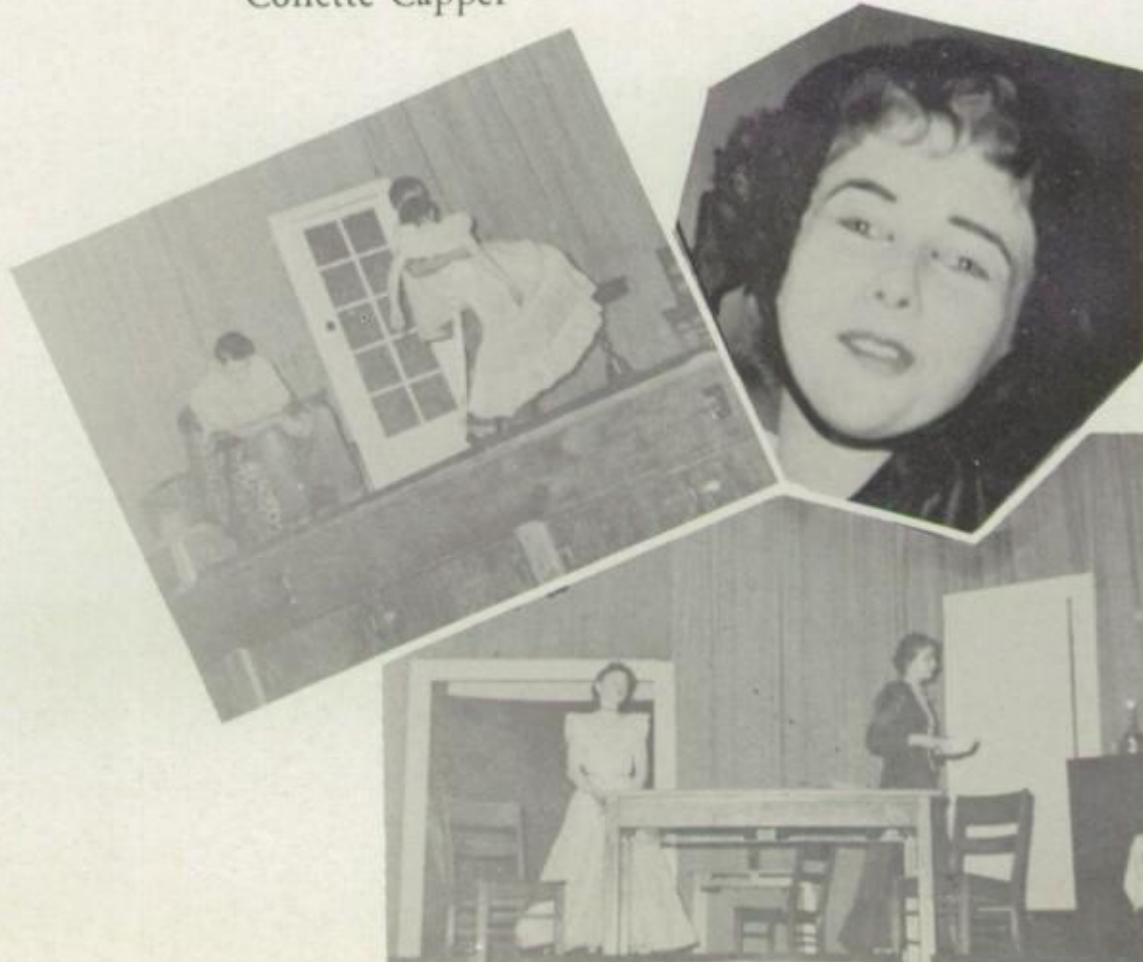

The play takes place in French Guiana in December, 1910. French Guiana, at this time, was a colony of convicts.

Felix Ducotel, his wife Emilie, and their daughter, Marie Louise, live in the back of the small general store they manage. The owner of the shop, Henri Trochard, and his nephew Paul, are coming to see how Felix is getting along.

As the play opens on December 24, three convicts are repairing the roof of the shop. From their vantage point they learn of the poor condition of Felix's books and hear Mr. Trochard threaten to take away the store. The three step in and help the Ducotel family solve their troubles. With the help of their poisonous snake, Adolphe, they kill the mercenary Mr. Trochard and forge his will. Paul, who appeared to be following in his uncle's footsteps, also gets bitten by the snake and dies. Thus, the Ducotels are left with the store and three new friends.

DEAR DELINQUENT

The senior class play, "Dear Delinquent," was presented April 8 and 9 under the direction of James Gohde, and we must say that it was a rousing success and was enjoyed by all.

The play, a comedy, centered around the troubles of David Warren, a young aristocrat from London. Mr. Warren is engaged to marry Helen Chandler, a wealthy young socialite. One night a young burglar named Penelope Shawn enters Mr. Warren's flat and is caught in the act of lifting jewels.

With the aid of a gun, Miss Shawn, a descendant of a long line of burglars, persuades Mr. Warren not to phone the police. The next day David is visited by Detective-Sergeant Pidgeon who suspects that he is connected with the theft of some jewels from some adjoining flats in the building. Penelope re-enters David's life, and somehow gets him hopelessly tangled in the theft. On top of it all, Miss Shawn decides that Helen Chandler is not good enough for David and promptly offers herself in replacement. David considers this plan preposterous, but eventually yields to her charms.

As the play ends, Helen walks out of David's life for good and Penelope Shawn walks in.

The forty-eight people on the Cardeon Staff this year have been divided into the following work groups: reporters, artists, typists, stencilists, proofreaders, mimeographers, and special editors. The executive staff this year consisted of Nancy Matson, editor-in-chief; Geraldine Kiehne, assistant editor; Mrs. Thiesfeld, advisor.

Every month found the reporters digging up the facts on every bit of news that occurred around our school; then the rest of the staff would process it. The last day the paper would be distributed and eagerly read by the students, faculty, administration and school board.

The paper always made its deadline, although the last day often found us mimeographing a few last pages and hurriedly stapling them together.

Cardinal editors, Betty Matson and Kathy Stork, along with Mrs. Thiesfeld, met with a representative from the W. A. Fisher Company early in the fall to receive suggestions on how to develop the annual, and get information about deadlines to be met. After drawing up the contract, the editors and staff began work and the Cardinal gradually began to take form. By the first of February, the first half had been sent to the company.

The Cardinal of 1960 is now a reality, and the Cardinal Staff hopes you will enjoy and cherish this book for many years to come.

Last summer our president attended the student council work shop at St. Olaf College. We sponsored the magazine drive and gave the money to the Foreign Student Fund for next year which we are also sponsoring. Also near the beginning of the year we published and distributed the Student Handbook. The Christmas party was a grand success thanks to the work of the student council. We arranged the order of the school parties and the list for selling at the basketball games. The hot lunch program has been improved since the student council has been working on it. We helped get more milk for those who wanted it during the noon meal. At the present time we are trying to get the water fountains in the upper halls fixed and are planning on having a mural painted on the lunchroom wall. These are the duties accomplished by the student council that really stand out but there have been many smaller, but just as important services rendered also this year.

SPORTS IN REVIEW

Football season began with three non-conference wins over Canton, Mabel, and Spring Grove. As the Cards continued to roll along they took conference wins from Wykoff, Lanesboro, and Chatfield. The next game being our Homecoming brought tension through-out the district as the two unbeaten teams met for the championship game. The largest crowd on record packed Harmony's athletic field as the Cards and the Spring Valley Wolves fought to a 13-13 tie. The last game was played in a drenching rain thus slowing up the Cards versatile offense and only giving a 13-7 win over Preston. With this win, the Cards' record for two years straight is fifteen wins and no losses.

Mike Henry, Dave Miller, Dan Hutton, and Stan Berg made All-Conference First Team and received Honorable mention for All State. The boys who made All-Conference Second Team were Loren Gillund, Joe Weber, and Arlyn Scrabeck.

Harmony's basketball team proved that the little man still has a chance in basketball, for our tallest man was only six feet. We dropped the first two games at the hands of Spring Grove, and Lanesboro. As the season progressed the team spilt wins and losses, until early in February when we crushed Chatfield. The next five opponents fell at the hands of the title hungry Cards to give the Cards a winning streak of six going into the tournaments. The first game in the tournaments was with Chatfield. We handled them all right in the first half, but in the second half something went wrong and the hot shooting of Chatfield eliminated us from District I play.

Mike Henry made Basketball All-Conference First Team. Ken Haugen made the Second Team, and Dan Hutton and Gerald Evenson received Honorable Mention.

Harmony's first successful year of competitive wrestling began on the bright side. Although the dual meet record was not the best, the grapplers took second place in the District I Tournaments. Individual champions were: Gary Nagel, 130 lbs.; Bob Vagts, 120 lbs.; Fred Young, 145 lbs.; Dave Miller, Hwt.

With over fifty boys answering the call for track, the picture was quite rosey for the Cards. We hope that another District Championship might be brought to the H.H.S. trophy-case.

Baseball begins another year in Harmony with a very young team, but under the guidance of our capable coach, Mr. Glesne, the Harmony Cards came through.

Best of luck to our friends in the coming year.

How you are good & don't want to have a summer car of you summer. So be good, be a summer. Will, next year. I don't know.

Be good this summer and take care of yourself. Remember the dance the other night. I saw you but don't do anything I would. I ask Jerry

Dear "Little Honey," Saved

Where can I begin to ~~name~~ mention all our splendid time together? We have had such riots since I've gotten to know you so well. Maybe I don't know you as well as I thought!! Yes, I do, Honey!

Tell Sweetie, how are you on this fine day? I say it is such a beautiful day, too! Oh, ~~and~~ fish! Why do I write about what a beautiful day it is, when I can tell you that? Course, I could tell you everything else too, but you wouldn't have proof of all the good things I'd say!

See why! It is only a short time, and I'll be going to Decorah to stay for weeks at a time!! Day will I miss you! I have a hard enough time living over week-ends without you! You sweet little dickens you! But I must earn some money for over future plans! Just think of the good times we'll have!!! Can't you see us going out every nite on the town?? How!! I just can't wait! I've been waiting years already and we still have one left!! We must go right after graduation - as soon as possible, that is!! And you must ~~remember~~ remember to come and see me - often! I'll be back week-ends as much as possible! Maybe not every week-end but most of them!!

Remember all the good times we've had together such as - on the last day of school (?) - prom (it was super!!) - all those times at "home" weren't they a riot? - all the sleepless parties (I never did get to put on a real party! - and the many, many laughs we've had - I know we will have many more!! Tell, here I am again!! I was gone, you know!! Had a few more laughs!! Yes! I'm going to leave this again and think awhile about it! Ok? Ah! Back again! I and I've been thinking - Yes! - I've been thinking!! We must double-date again! No? - you're thinking? Still, we must when we have such fun together!! Ok? Ok!! Oh, shucks, when for? I wish we could have kept it up!! - I'm hungry!! No! I guess I can refrain from being hungry since you have nothing to offer!! Besides yourself, that is!! You're so charming, tender, thoughtful, kind, understandable, ignorant, beautiful, lovable, stupid, hateful (also!), egotistical, overbearing, eccentric, thoughtful, horrible, cruel, brute-ish, coquette-ish, despicable, hilarious, dry humored, clever, and electrifying!! I always did contradict myself so that crosses you off my list altogether!! Oh, no! When I looked to my left what did I see? The most horrible, frightful looking man!! He scared me out of 20 years' growth (not that I wanted to grow any!!) and when I focused my eyeballs and saw who it was - I could have died!! It was that terrific father of yours!! They say if you can say anything good about someone - don't say it!! I always was the biggest liar around!! Not really, of course! Vikes! I have to finish this in pencil 'cause my pen run out as you can see! (Forgot how to spell!) Tell, lover, I hope you won't be sore all your life - that would be bad!! You dumb drip, you really are blooming up the works - get busy and write and I don't want to hear a word out of you!! Day! do I feel good now - since I just fed my face!! Maybe I should be serious in these last few lines left!! I certainly have enjoyed knowing you and really, Honey!! I'm going to miss you like the devil!! This summer!! But I will be back on week-ends to go with you skating!! Ok? I love you remember - even tho' you are a little stinker!! Tell, this was a wonderful school year with a true friend!! I've had much fun this summer soaking up the sun while I'm still a ways remember your friendship - well appreciated!!

Collette - Best wishes to a cover. Have fun working this summer and I might see you, but not at work cause I'm quitting. Just me huh!

Collette (Blue), I just know I'm gonna have fun this summer out to the cave. It doesn't seem possible that we're seniors, but I'm sure our class will make good use of the title. It's sure been fun knowing you, you little devil!! P.S. I love you! Love, Sharyl (Rusty)

Blue: Best? Luck to a fellow 'Cave Woman' (Ha)! Take it easy on those Proctor steps!! About teaching me your secret for getting tips - C.T.!! Well take it easy - See ya!

Dear Salton, I'm in this school. Take care on the boys and don't be a grooch. Bye Collette: Well know it'll be a senior. Probly good huh! Anyway here's hopes you have fun this summer. Love P.S. Goodbye!

Collette: I hope you get a really high grade! Take it easy on the Proctor steps. Don't forget to take a picture of you and the two of you. Love, Sharyl (Rusty)

Collette: Good luck! Next year you'll be a senior. I'll take it easy on those steps. Love, Sharyl (Rusty)
